

Established 17 years

✓ ? ✗ Before you make your decision...

Deciding on who you trust to design, make and install your signs is important. You want value for money, a product and a professional service with no nasty surprises.

If you follow this checklist when deciding which company to go for, you can avoid problems later and feel confident in your decision.

There is a legal obligation on anyone arranging work on their premises to ensure that the chosen contractor is a proven professional, carries out risk assessment and provides you with a method statement for the work they propose to undertake.

- |   |                          |                                     |
|---|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Have the staff who will visit and work on the site been CRB checked?                         | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Are the installers certified for IPAF, PASMA and CSCS?                                       | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Do installers use equipment like cable detectors when installing signs?                      | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Will they carry out a risk assessment and give you a method statement?                       | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Do they carry £5 million product and liability and £10 million employer liability insurance? | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. Do they offer a 5 year "no quibble" guarantee – in writing?                                  | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. Can they provide numerous school case studies to show the quality of their work?             | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. Can they provide numerous written testimonials to support their case?                        | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 9. How long have they been established as a company and are they stable?                        | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 10. Have they won any recognised industry awards?   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |

So how confident do you feel now? If you can ensure that your supplier can tick these boxes, you can feel sure that they will deliver the best possible result.

